

Steve Happenny

Employed by the FAA Transport Airplane Directorate, Mechanical Systems and Propulsion Branch in Renton, WA since 1995. Responsible for regulations and policy on Environmental Control Systems and Fire Protection in non-continuously occupied areas (cargo compartments, remote crew rests, etc.). He also serves as the FAA Aircraft Certification Halon Replacement Point of Contact. Steve has a BS, Mechanical Engineering, University of Utah